Deadlines:

- The Department Heads should recommend nominations by the end of November. These nominees are for an award the following year, typically announced in March. All awards are to be submitted electronically in PDF format.
- There should be no more than one nominee from each Department.
- Nominees should come directly from the Head, although the Head may consult with faculty, staff and students. Criteria from the university-level award should be referenced.
- The Heads then ask nominated faculty members to voluntarily submit materials for formal application to the Purdue University Graduate School (see requirements below).
- Department submissions should be given to Rita Neidlinger (rneidlin@purdue.edu) in the Dean’s Office by 5:00 p.m. on the second Friday in February.
- In late February these materials are reviewed by the COE Awards Committee.
- One nomination is to be forwarded from the Awards Committee to the Associate Dean for Discovery and Faculty Development Office, Jim Lehman (lehman@purdue.edu), by the last Friday in February. The College winner receives $1,000 (in paycheck) and certificate.
- The Associate Dean forwards this complete nomination to the Graduate School in February.

Purpose:
To help insure that the COE forwards a fully qualified and competitive applicant on to the Graduate School.

Application Procedures and Criteria (based on the Graduate School requirements):

- Current graduate faculty member on the West Lafayette campus
- From any college/school
- Nominees must demonstrate sustained and significant contributions to graduate education at Purdue University through activities such as
  - Well-structured relationships with students that lead to successful completion of masters and doctoral degrees. These relationships include service on committees, mentoring, funding, intellectual and creative support, advocacy, and respect for students;
  - Innovative graduate teaching;
  - Significant administration of graduate programs

Process

- Two awards (out of the Graduate School) of $2,500 each.
- Awards announced at the all-University Honors Convocation.
- Nominating documents, in electronic PDF format, will be limited to 5 pages, exclusive of the c.v. and support letters, and include
  - A cover sheet with nominee’s name, contact information (see attached sample below);
  - C.V. (include education; Purdue position; graduate courses taught; significant publications [indicate publications co-authored with graduate students by an asterisk on each graduate student’s name])
Nominee’s reflection on involvement in various aspects of graduate education (1-2 pages); this section should be written by the nominee and include, but not be limited to, innovations in graduate mentoring and graduate administrative service;

List of past masters and doctoral students for whom the nominee served as major professor and their current positions if available (1-2 pages);

Four letters of support: one from a Purdue administrator (department head; dean, etc.) and three from past students (~1 page each).

Nomination process: Nominations should be forwarded to the dean of the Graduate School by the relevant academic dean or, in the case of interdisciplinary graduate programs, by the Office of Interdisciplinary Graduate Programs. The nomination process at the college or school level should include input from graduate faculty and graduate students. Academic deans will select a maximum number of nominees in proportion to the college’s/school’s number of graduate students (based on fall enrollment data):

- Agriculture (9%) 1
- CFS (3%) 1
- Education (7%) 1
- Engineering (31%) 3
- Liberal Arts (16%) 2
- Management (9%) 1
- Pharmacy, Nursing, Health Sciences (2%) 1
- Science (15%) 2
- Technology (4%) 1
- Vet Medicine (1%) 1
- Interdisciplinary GPs (3%) 1

Total 15

Awardees will be determined from college/school nominees by a committee composed of the graduate faculty (selected by the Graduate School) and graduate students (selected by the president of the Purdue Graduate Student Government) and representing the behavioral sciences, the chemistry-based sciences, engineering and physical sciences, humanities and social sciences, life sciences, and management sciences.

Graduate School’s Timeline:
- Request for nominations released October
