Please provide any additional information about or descriptions of the supervised clinical experiences:

Clock hours are averages from all programs. All Purdue University West Lafayette teacher education programs include an early field experience and student teaching component. Although there is no requirement for mentoring/induction support, Purdue offers a first-year teacher performance pledge. Faculty and staff will provide individualized support for any Purdue first-year teacher in Indiana who is not performing to an appropriate standard. The College of Education has partnerships with P-12 schools in Indiana. The school can be an elementary, middle/junior high, or high school that works collaboratively with Purdue University teacher education faculty to develop and demonstrate exemplary learning practices and programs for diverse students; provides field-based preparation (early field experiences and student teaching) for our teacher education students, and discovers and demonstrates new educational knowledge through study and research. The Transition to Teaching program allows for candidates to serve as the teacher of record in a classroom if they are currently operating on a state-issued Emergency Permit or Transition to Teaching Permit. In order to obtain full licensure, these candidates must complete a licensure program. For these provisional teachers, we provide university supervision and designate a mentor in the building. For the Special Education programs, candidates also may be the teacher of record in a classroom. These candidates complete 320 hours of supervised practicum and 640 hours of supervised student teaching experience in the online program.

Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2020-21.

For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

What are CIP Codes?

No teachers prepared in academic year 2020-21

If your program has no teachers prepared, check the box above and leave the table below blank (or clear responses already entered).

What are CIP codes? The Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) provides a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity. CIP was originally developed by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in 1980, with revisions occurring in 1985, 1990, and 2000 (<https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cipcode/Default.aspx?y=55>).

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2020-21. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

Respond to the following assurances. Teacher preparation programs should be prepared to provide documentation and evidence, when requested, to support the following assurances. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(A\)\(iii\); §206\(b\))

Program Assurances

Note: This section is preloaded from the prior year's IPRC.

1. Program preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach, based on past hiring and recruitment trends.

- Yes
 No

2. Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.

- Yes
 No

3. Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.

- Yes
 No
 Program does not prepare special education teachers

4. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.

- Yes
 No

5. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.

- Yes
 No

6. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.

- Yes
 No

7. Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.

- Yes
 No

8. Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

For AY 2020-2021, the Purdue University Alternative Teacher Education Program(s) reflects Transition to Teaching (TTT) and Special Education (Mild and Intense). TTT consists of 18 credit hours in Professional Education, including methods courses and student teaching designed to reinforce the transference of content knowledge in a variety school settings and instructional levels for grades 5-12 and P-12 (Art Education). Special Education (P-12) Mild and Mild and Intense reflects a 33 credit hour Master's program resulting in an Initial Indiana Instructional License in either Mild or Mild and Intense. The post-graduate/post-baccalaureate TTT program actively involves professors and instructors from all disciplines, including English learners, special education, and technology in education. The courses taken by students are taught by professors and instructors who communicate regularly with practicing elementary and secondary teachers in our partner schools who are familiar with cutting-edge, research-based pedagogies. Students complete early field experience and student teaching placements in rural, suburban, and/or urban secondary schools and are mentored both by Purdue faculty and Master teachers in their disciplines at both the elementary and secondary school settings. Purdue University has an English Language Learning graduate-level program. However, this program is not an initial licensure program but is rather a content ADDITION licensure program. This licensure area can only be added to an existing Indiana teacher license. Since inclusion is part of all teacher education programs, content and strategies for teaching P-12 students with disabilities are included in methods and field experiences. Students learn evidence-based content and strategies, as well as pedagogy related to P-12 students with exceptional needs. Technology is integrated into courses throughout the Purdue University post-baccalaureate teacher license only and Transition to Teaching Teacher Education Programs to ensure candidates are prepared to effectively use technology to collect, manage, and analyze data to improve teaching and learning and to address the technological needs of diverse learners.

Annual Goals: Mathematics

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route teacher preparation program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students.

\(§205\(a\)\(1\) \(A\)\(i\), §205\(a\)\(1\)\(A\)\(ii\), §206\(a\)\)

Report Progress on Last Year's Goal (2020-21)

1. Did your program prepare teachers in mathematics in 2020-21?

If no, leave remaining questions for 2020-21 blank (or clear responses already entered).

- Yes
 No

2. Describe your goal.

The 2020-2021 Mathematics Education Goal was to prepare 10 mathematics teachers via an alternative route program. The Purdue University Transition to Teaching Program generated 1 mathematics program completer.

3. Did your program meet the goal?

- Yes
 No

4. Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

5. Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:

Two crucial changes have been implemented to ensure an increase in STEM-based Transition to Teaching recruits and program completers: 1.) The recent hiring of an additional graduate level recruiter and 2.) The approval and implementation of the Boilermaker Track to Teaching Program. The latter enables undergraduate students in any Purdue major to explore teaching by taking up to 9 credit hours in Professional Education. These credits will transfer directly to the graduate level, alternative Transition to Teaching Program where a teaching credential can be achieved within 12-15 months.

6. Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

Review Current Year's Goal (2021-22)

If no, leave remaining questions for 2020-21 blank (or clear responses already entered).

- Yes
 No

2. Describe your goal.

The 2020-2021 Science Education Goal was to prepare 10 science teachers in biology, chemistry, earth/space sciences, and/or physics via an alternative route program. The Purdue University Transition to Teaching Program generated three program completers: 2 Biology and 1 Chemistry teacher.

3. Did your program meet the goal?

- Yes
 No

4. Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

5. Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:

Two crucial changes have been implemented to ensure an increase in STEM-based Transition to Teaching recruits and program completers: 1.) The recent hiring of an additional graduate level recruiter and 2.) The approval and implementation of the Boilermaker Track to Teaching Program. The latter enables undergraduate students in any Purdue major to explore teaching by taking up to 9 credit hours in Professional Education. These credits will transfer directly to the graduate level, alternative Transition to Teaching Program where a teaching credential can be achieved within 12-15 months.

 No

4. Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

5. Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:

The admission and enrollment for the Purdue University alternative Special Education Program has remained steady. Increased recruitment goals and additional training and development of program recruiters and student facing support are projected to improve this program's yield within two years. Further, the discontinuation of emergency permits within Indiana and elsewhere has placed a definitive completion date for some of Purdue's continuing, alternative program students and also encouraged new admissions.

In the case of a teacher preparation program with fewer than 10 scores reported on any single initial teacher credential assessment during an academic year, the program shall collect and publish information with respect to an average pass rate and scaled score on each state credential assessment taken over a three-year period. (§205(a)(1)(B))

Please note that this page does not have an edit feature as the pass rates have already been through several rounds of verification. If you identify an error, please contact RTI's Title II Support Center and your testing company representative.

Use of Technology

1. Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(F\))

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- a. integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction

Yes
 No

- b. use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning

Yes
 No

- c. use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning

Yes
 No

- d. use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning

Yes
 No

2. Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Technology is required in courses throughout the Purdue University Teacher Education Program, including alternative programs, to ensure candidates are prepared to effectively use technology to collect, manage, and analyze data to improve teaching and learning and to address the technological needs of diverse learners. Students access information about schools and class content through a learning management system and how to use technology to facilitate organization, assessment, and student achievement. The following are addressed: the nature and role of educational technology; fundamentals of education technology, including the integration of instructional design, media, computer, and related technologies within the classroom setting; students explore and evaluate how, when, and why technology should be infused into education; students experience how different tools are used to create, manage, present, and evaluate instructional materials; students learn how the computer, other forms of media, and instructional design techniques are integrated, utilized, and evaluated within the classroom; and students use technology to gather resources to understand its effective use in the classroom. Technological applications in special education, including microcomputers, interactive video, auditory and visual enhancement, and other adaptive devices with individuals with disabilities including learning and cognitive disabilities and visual, sensory, and physical impairments are also introduced. All candidates in the alternative Special Education Program complete Advanced Assistive Technology. This course addresses the educational/training application of instructional technology, including computers, media, and instructional design. It stresses the knowledge, skills, and dispositions needed to implement and manage technology in instructional environments to meet the needs of individuals with diverse special needs and to make technological accommodations when needed.

THIS PAGE INCLUDES:

>> Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program.

(§205(a)(1)(G))

Note: This section is preloaded from the prior year's IPRC.

Teacher Training

1. Provide a description of the activities that prepare general education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

The traditional and alternative Purdue University Teacher Education Program curricula focuses on: Social Justice and Diversity (race, ethnicity, social class [low income and at-risk student populations], gender, language proficiency (English Learners), cognitive abilities, exceptionality – including high ability/gifted and talented), K-12 STEM Education, Innovation, Collaboration, Advancement, and Leadership. The Purdue University Teacher Education Program has partnerships with schools in rural, suburban, and urban school settings in Indiana and elsewhere. The post-graduate/post-baccalaureate Secondary Transition to Teaching program actively involves professors and instructors from all disciplines, including English learners, special education, and technology in education. The courses taken by students are taught by professors and instructors who communicate regularly with practicing elementary and secondary teachers in our partner schools who are familiar with cutting-edge, research-based pedagogies. Students complete early field experience and student teaching placements in rural, suburban, and/or urban secondary schools and are mentored both by Purdue faculty and Master teachers in their disciplines at both the elementary and secondary school settings. Purdue University has an English Language Learning graduate level program. This program is not an initial licensure program but is rather a content ADDITION licensure program. This licensure area can only be added to an existing Indiana teacher license. Since inclusion is part of all teacher education programs, content and strategies for teaching P-12 students with disabilities are included in methods and field experiences. Students learn evidence-based content and strategies, as well as pedagogy related to P-12 students with exceptional needs.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

Within the first course Transition to Pedagogy #1 and throughout the Transition to Teaching (TTT) program, the purpose and application of the Individualized Education Plan (IEP) are reinforced. During student teaching, TTT students may have an opportunity to participate in instructional teams, glean from their special education colleagues, and with the guidance of their cooperating/mentor teacher, examine and apply the IEPs associated with students within their classroom. Students within the Special Education program receive multiple opportunities to comprehend the role and significance of the IEP as both an author and implementer. Relatable courses include EDPS 56800 Social, Legal, and Ethical Issues in Special Education; EDPS 56300 Identification, Evaluation, and Assessment of Exceptional Needs; and EDPS 56010 Practicum in Special Education Assessment and Teaching.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

Please reference 1a above.

2. Does your program prepare special education teachers?

- Yes
 No

If yes, provide a description of the activities that prepare special education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

Candidates develop a context for learning in order to identify specific needs, strengths, areas for continuous improvement, etc. of the learners with/without disability. In addition to this information, teacher candidates use baseline data and other assessments to make decisions regarding which evidence-based strategies would best meet the student's needs. Teacher candidates develop lesson plans and demonstrate performance within clinical practice experiences. Candidates are evaluated on their impact on student learning based on a series of performance-based Key Assessment Rubrics. The following courses are where this Context for Learning occurs: EDPS 57701 Characteristics of Children with Mild Exceptionalities: Advanced Level EDPS 51500 Applied Behavior Analysis for Teachers EDPS 56500 Intervention Strategies and Research EDPS 56010 Practicum in Special Education Assessment and Teaching Mild/Intense EDPS 56600 Graduate Supervised Teaching Special Education (16 weeks)

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

Candidates participate in a minimum of four (4) opportunities to co-develop an IEP and participate as a member of a collaborative team meeting/Case Conference. The following courses are where this participation occurs: EDPS 56800 Social, Legal, and Ethical Issues in Special Education EDPS 56510 Collaboration and Transition Practices in Special Education EDPS 56010 Practicum in Special Education Assessment and Teaching Mild/Intense EDPS 56600 Graduate Supervised Teaching Special Education

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

Candidates are introduced to legislation (EDPS 56800 Social, Legal, and Ethical Issues in Special Education) and strategies (EDPS 56500 Intervention Strategies and Research) for working with students with limited English proficiency. Some candidates experience teaching students with English proficiency during Clinical Practice Experiences in EDPS 56010 Intervention Strategies and Research and EDPS 56600 Graduate Supervised Teaching Special Education.

Additional Clarification for Quantitative Results Effective with this report that reflects 2020-2021 outcomes, Purdue University defines Transition to Teaching (TTT) as one program with a pedagogy emphasis. Description of Purdue University Purdue University is a public, land-grant university located in West Lafayette, Indiana. Throughout its history, Purdue has been dedicated to the mission and spirit of land grant universities through the conduct of significant outreach to the citizens of Indiana and beyond. Purdue is committed to the discovery and dissemination of knowledge, a mission reflected not only in its land grant status but also in its Carnegie classification as RU/VH: Research University (very high research activity). Teacher Education at Purdue is governed by a Teacher Education Council (TEC) and is comprised of representatives from five colleges across the university: the Colleges of Agriculture, Health and Human Sciences, Education, Liberal Arts, and Science, as well as the Purdue Polytechnic Institute, where students are enrolled in these colleges and major in their content areas. The Program Coordinator Council (PCC) is a collaborative and advisory body to the TEC that is comprised of the program conveners for all teacher education programs. The PCC provides a mechanism to address common issues affecting teacher education programs. It also provides support and encouragement for networking, collaboration, and professional development among faculty and staff. The College of Education provides leadership for the PCC and TEC, as well as core education courses and support services.
